TehPwnMachine's Guide

Thank you for purchasing/downloading TehPwnMachines referral tactic guide. As an experienced R1 member, I've compiled a huge list of easy ways to get referrals. There's most likely going to be many typos, as I'm too lazy to search for Microsoft Word crack, so I'm using Notepad. Don't expect to use one method and get like 600, but I bet if you did ALL of these (time-consuming) you'd sure win the next ref contest.

Tactic 1-Friends

Tell your friends (if you have any) You're more likely going to get your friend to sign up than some guy on YouTube, so tell your friends. Tell them how you can get free stuff, and tell them you got so and so from the site and it's legit, if s/he is a good friend, they'll most likely try it.

Tactic 2-YouTube

Probably the most known one, Make a video explaining how you can get stuff for free. I suggest using either a high quality screen recorder such as Camtasia or something. Or you can take screenshots and edit them in Photoshop. If you're not experienced at Photoshop I suggest using the Camtasia method. But now you have the video showing cool stuff, but now to edit it. Some people use Windows Movie Maker and still make high quality vids, but some people are noobs at it. Don't use the default stuff, try to make it seem like "Did he make that in WMM or what?" Also don't use music that maybe only you listen to like metal or rap, use a soft rock song or the biggest song on the radio,

Tactic 3- Metacafe

You get way more views on here. Use all the stuff from tip 2.

Tactic 4- Other vid sites

See tactics 72-84

Tactic 5-Google

Okay, so a lot of you probably have heard about TourneDisque. Well his ref id is 5581, so why not go into Google, and search http://www.rewards1.com/index.php?referrer_id=5581 . Now you can see where he is referring

Tactic 6-Myspace

Post bulletins on Myspace about how easy it is, and how you can get free stuff. Pretty easy

Tactic 7 - Facebook

Same as tactic 6, just use fancy talk and you should be reel in them in no time.

Tactic 8- Traffic sites

Sites like Getref.com and stuff DO NOT WORK. DON'T GO HERE. They are just a waste of time.

Tactic 9 - Myspace#2

Make a Myspace and get one of those programs where it adds like 500 friends a day until you got like 2000 friends. Then post a few bulletins every now and then and you should definitely get some refs.

Tactic 10 - Sigs

If you post on any forums (most likely you do) put your ref link in your sig, and post around the forum alot.

Tactic 11 - Forums

Also, in the general discussion, if youre known around the forum and youre trusted, post a thread on R1.If its your first post your most likely going to get banned.

Tactic 12 - Youtube#2

Make a few spam accounts on youtube, and then go commenting on popular vids (Chocolate rain gets a new comment like evry 20 seconds) and at the end put ur ref link

Tactic 13 - Websites

Websites can have more info than a bulletin in myspace or a 2 minute video on youtube, they can hold pages and pages of info.Good websites for beginners are freewebs and googlepages.

Tactic 14 - Xbox live and PSN

I have a xbox 360 and my motto contains my ref link, and i always get messages about it, and i get ppl to sign up.I dont know how psn works, but im sure you can spread it around somehow.

Tactic 15- Ebay

If you sell alot of stuff on ebay, at the top or bottom of your ads put your link.Put something in high demand up but just keep taking it down and it should get alot of views if its like an ipod or something.

Tactic 16-Chatrooms

Yahoo chatrooms,myspace chatrooms, theyre all FILLED with teenagers with nothing better to do except sit on the computer, so why not make money while theyre doing it?Tell them about it.

Tactic 17 - Downloads

If you say upload a popular song in a folder with your ref link in a seperate txt and you upload it, all the people that download it are most likely going to read it.

Tactic 18 - Help

Put in your vid descriptions or anything "If you need any help PLEASE contact me at ..."Alot of people will message you and stuff

Tactic 19-Extra tags

Ever see those tags at the end of a youtube description containing alot of random words?Well those are words people search for, helping their vid get more hits.Micchi has a nice list at <http://forums.rewards1.com/showthread.php?t=4708>

Tactic 20-I.M

I'm sure your buddies on MSN or AIM wouldnt mind getting stuff for free.Put it as your away message default, or im them about it,

Tactic 21-Neighbors

You can try telling your neighbors, believe it or not my neighbor is one of my best referrals.

Tactic 22-Online Games

If you play WoW or any other game online,tell people on there about it, im sure theyd like to join R1 too!

Tactic 23-Search engines

Search engines usually filter their searches by most popular at top.So maybe when you goto bed get an auto clicker to hit refresh on your website and you'll get thousands of hits, moving it more toward the top.

Tactic 24- Family

At christmas or something when your all eating dinner, why not mention how you get free xbox live to grandma?

Tactic 25 -Youtube vids to the max

Make more than one youtube vid, make over 20, but upload them ALL on aol video,metacafe,all that good stuff.It may be time consuming but i think its better then flipping burgers at mcdonalds.

Tactic 26 - Keep it 2 yurself

If you get a bunch of referrals from this method you found, dont spread it around or else every1 is going to be using that method and then its going to be garbage

Tactic 27-Games

I prefer runescape for this, as it is filled with noobs.If you have alot of money, go and say "Ill give u blah blah money if you spread this link around."Noobs will do anything for money.

Tactic 28-Exchange

Tell someone you'll do something for them if they spread around your link

Tactic 29-Producing

If you sell something (like gfx ona forum) you could say Ill give you this if you spread around

Tactic 29-Video exchange

This one actually works well, make like 2+ accounts on youtube or wherever you posted your vids, and say "Ill give you 2 nice comments and 2 five stars if you give me one"Alot of people will do it and mmore people will be confident.

Tactic 30-Work

If you work you can tell your co-workers about it.Works best at offices

Tactic 31-Pictures

This is for people who use photoshop.Make a siignature with your ref link and post it on multiple GFX sites

Tactic 32-Shopping

Get about 30 strips of paper and write on them "Want to get stuff for free? Goto [ref link].I promise it works" and drop them in peoples shopping cart or on the floor or on the conveyor belt where they put their items

Tactic33-School

Tell people at school in between periods

Tactic 34-School #2

Its like #32, except at school.If someone has their locker open, throw it int here.Or in class drop it because people with think its a note or something.

Tactic 35-Curious

Go on alot of forums and post something like "I just got 1600Microsoft points/or/ 1 month of xbox live for free!" Most likely people are going to ask how, and thenyou reply like that.More likely to get refs.

Tactic 36-Digg

Post on Digg about it.Try not to spam

Tactic 37-Popularity

Youtube is more likely going to show a video with 10k hits then a video with 1k hits.So use this neat program called TubeInceaser.It will get you more views.

Tactic38-Popularity#2

Post alot of videos on your channel, i reccomend tutorials.Then once you have about 100 subscribers start posting rewards1 vids.Most like 75 of them are going to watch.And they wouldn't really expect you to rip htem off.
